 - The Wine Advocate Says
WA The basic bottling 2009 Beaujolais Pierre
87 Chermette — even at only 12.6% alcohol, still alcoholically weightier than usual for this cuvee — displays sweetly ripe strawberry and cherry fruit with hints of iodine and chalk as well as cherry pit bitterness typical for these chalky southern Beaujolais soils. The overall effect is softer and less vivid than usual but still delicious, and will be best enjoyed over the coming year, lightly chilled. (DS) Score: 87.
